

DAVIES ARNOLD COOPER

Press Release

19 April 2010

DAVIES ARNOLD COOPER LLP RECRUITS INSURANCE PARTNER

Edward Coulson is joining Davies Arnold Coopers' insurance group as Partner. Coulson, based at the firm's Manchester office, specialises in Professional Indemnity (PI) and will head the Manchester Insurance team, working closely with the firm's London office.

"Large insurance companies are increasingly looking for law firms that can provide legal services beyond offices in EC3," said Edward Coulson. "Davies Arnold Cooper has been developing its national insurance team in recent years and it is exciting to become part of the team at a time of real expansion."

Coulson joins the firm on 10 May from Robin Simon LLP. He specialises in defending professional negligence claims brought against a wide variety of professionals, including: accountants, architects, barristers, conveyancers, IFAs, insurance brokers, solicitors and surveyors. Coulson also provides advice on policy wording and coverage issues.

Danny Gowan, Davies Arnold Cooper's Senior Partner, says: "Edward's appointment will strengthen the firm's insurance group – not just in Manchester but nationally. Our client base increasingly want the highest quality advice delivered with the option of flexibility in cost and point of provision. This appointment is strategic and emphasises the importance of the further development of the Manchester insurance team to the firm's insurance practice."
