DAVIES ARNOLD COOPER ANNOUNCES SENIOR REAL ESTATE APPOINTMENT

Davies Arnold Cooper LLP has announced a new senior lateral hire to its Real Estate team. Oliver Emanuel becomes a partner in the firm's London office, joining from Eversheds, where he was a partner.

Oliver has extensive experience in commercial, residential, office and mixed-use developments, including town centre regeneration projects and large scale retail developments. Oliver advises private sector developers, development agencies and local authorities on all aspects of these complex deals, including development funding and infrastructure agreements, as well as land-assembly issues and compulsory purchase agreements.

Oliver says: "It is a great pleasure to join Davies Arnold Cooper's real estate team. The group is highly regarded as a leading development firm and I look forward to making a significant contribution working with clients involved in large-scale commercial and mixed-use projects."

Davies Arnold Cooper's Real Estate team has over 60 lawyers nationally.

Robert Lee, partner and Head of Davies Arnold Cooper's Real Estate group, says: "Oliver's appointment further strengthens our Real Estate team and shows that we are focused on developing long-term capability for complex commercial real estate development projects. This is exciting news for both our team and our clients."

Andrew Workman has also joined the firm as Senior Solicitor in the Employment group. Andrew is an employment law specialist with over 8 years experience in the field. He joins from Hewitsons LLP where the main focus of his work has been to provide support to HR managers, typically in relation to disciplinary and grievance issues, redundancies, and the transfer of businesses. He has advised a broad range of clients in the private sector,
