

Solicitor Risk in Brief May 2018

Published 30 May 2018

Regulatory

Recent SDT Decisions relating to solicitors mental health

Reformed Solicitors Minimum Terms & Conditions and Compensation Fund

Other Articles

Tempted to offer free advice? A reminder of a cautionary tale

Civil Procedure update

Legal Indemnity Insurance, a panacea

Nature and Effect of the solicitors Equitable Lien

Solicitors liability to opposing party

GDPR Update

Latest Alerts

Dreamvar - the recurring nightmare for solicitors and PI insurers?

Background

Property fraud by identity thieves has been on the rise in recent years and this litigation has granted the courts the opportunity to delineate the scope of the responsibility of solicitors where this goes undetected. The current resting point of the law following the Court of Appeal's judgment will be unpalatable for solicitors and their professional indemnity insurers.

To read the full article, please click here

Authors

Philip Murrin

London - Walbrook

pmurrin@dacbeachcroft.com

Catrin Davies

Newport

cadavies@dacbeachcroft.com

Gill Burnett

Newcastle

gburnett@dacbeachcroft.com